

Rules of the New Caucus Hybrid Nominating Convention

Saturday, November 18, 2023

Rules regarding Nominations from the Floor

The convention will conduct nominations, statements, voting and announcements of results one office at a time. Individuals who are voting members of the convention can nominate a New Caucus member in good standing from the floor for the office under discussion. Self nominations are also in order. The nomination must be seconded for it to be considered. After taking any additional nominations for each office, nominations will be closed.

Nominee's Forum

All nominees for all slate positions will have the opportunity to make a candidate statement. Nominees for the top four (4) offices, President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer will each have a total of three (3) minutes to divide between themselves and the person nominating them, or the nominee may speak for the whole time. The rest of the nominees have a total of two (2) minutes to be divided by themselves and their nominators, or they may take the whole time themselves. There will be no speeches from AFT, NYSUT or AAUP delegate candidates.

Speeches will be timed, and we ask that you observe the time limits. If there needs to be additional rounds of voting because of a tie, individuals who have been nominated may remove themselves from consideration.

Balloting and Voting Tabulation

After all nominations from the floor have been received, and nominees or nominators have spoken, voting members of the convention will be given a ballot for that particular office.

In-person voting: On the ballot, you will write in the name(s) of the candidate(s) that you have selected for this office. You must write the first and last names of the candidate. The ballots will be collected and counted by individuals designated by the New Caucus Coordinating Committee, aka the NC Counting Team.

Electronic voting: Balloting will be conducted using the Zoom poll feature. Eligible voters will place a check mark on the electronic ballot (eballot) next to the name of the candidate(s) of their choice and click the "Submit" button. The eballots will be tallied by Zoom and results shared with the NC Counting Team.

The NC Counting Team will certify the election results for each officer position and as soon as the counting is completed the results will be announced. In the event of a tie, another round of voting will take place. Rounds of voting will take place until there is a clear winner before moving to the next officer position on the slate.
